

Making Peace: An Introduction to Resolving Conflict Creatively & Poster Prints

w/ Jerri Allyn, Teaching Artist

*For Pre-K students, World Tots YWCA: 2 classes, Tues & Thurs afts, 3:00pm to 5:00pm
March 16 & 18, March 23 & 25, March 30 & April 1, April 6 & 8, 2021.*

The City of L.A. Dept of Cultural Affairs awarded funding, District 15 San Pedro, to facilitate multi-week workshops and 1 concluding

Parents! Poster Parade on April 8, 2021, Liberty Plaza

Objectives / Interactive learning opportunity for participants:

- Intro to Resolving Conflict Creatively lessons exploring respect, differences, defining peace and conflict; • Introduction to Poster Printing lessons: Stencil symbol & text images, experimenting with print techniques to explore shape; color; texture; rubbings; pattern; Building on knowledge of elements of art and principals of design (composition and shape, etc. - above noted);
- Increase visual literacy; strengthen observation, articulation, listening, comprehension, reflective skills. • Stencil Print 8.5" x 11" Poster/Flyers on sticks, created by each participant
- Stencil Print at least two jointly created Posters 14" x 16" for: the class and Teacher Jerri
- Celebrate / acknowledge completion of projects with parents

Workshops:

1-Getting Better Acquainted exercise

Stencil Hands: – HI – Bye – Stop? Other? / Color Shape

2-Good and Poor Listening exercise

Stencil Ears: Texture

3-Creating a Positive Classroom Environment

Put downs rip / Put Ups whole – Heart / Rubbings Shape

4-Respecting Differences

Stencil: Ice Cream / Pattern (use light colors – save for printing more on top)

5-Peace Is ...

Free Draw, I really feel peaceful, happy ...

(Stencils: Peace hand, Peace sign)

6-Fight, argument, disagreement = Conflict ...

Free Draw, An argument/fight/disagreement I had one time ...

(Stencils: Fist and 'X' fist = No fist no fighting)

7-To create a final poster – 2 sessions: With watercolors, jointly print stencils from all lessons: Tips for resolving conflicts: Know, Listen, Put Ups, Respect Diff. Peace sign. Print words: RESPECT & LISTEN

8-To create a final poster: With watercolors, jointly print stencils from all lessons. Glue stick to posters.